

Tariff of mortgage charges

Effective from 1 January 2022

Reliance Property Loans is closely involved in the mortgage industry's initiative with UK Finance and Which? to make our fees and charges easy for you to understand

Our tariff of charges fully reflects the initiative's good practice principles. This same document is being used across the industry to help customers compare mortgages.

When looking at the fees that other firms charge, you may notice some that don't appear in our tariff. This means we won't charge you these fees.

Please note that where an amount of a fee or charge is shown in our tariff, that's the current amount at the date the tariff was published.

Please also note that where fees or charges are shown as variable, they can be found on our website reliancepropertyloans.co.uk or as otherwise indicated below.

If you ask us for extra documentation and/or services beyond the standard management of your account

This is a list of charges that you may have to pay in relation to the administration of your mortgage. We'll send you a copy of this with your annual statement each year.

The above costs aren't exhaustive and may vary according to the complexity and details of each case. You'll have to pay any costs we pay to third parties (e.g., associates, solicitors, asset managers, receivers and courts) that we may instruct to recover any money owed to us, or to create or protect our security, or in any other exercise of our legal rights or to do something you are supposed to do under your mortgage. If we apply any other fee to cover administration costs in relation to your mortgage with us, we'll give you reasonable notice, stating the amount of the fee, the nature of the works covered by it and the date on which we'll add the fee to your mortgage.

As stated above, where an amount of fee or charge is shown in the tariff, it is the current amount. We may vary the amount of any fee or charge in accordance with the terms and conditions of your mortgage.

These charges are inclusive of VAT where applicable and may be subject to change.
